REACT is a training project for long term unemployed people assisting them with very diverse problems to move forward onto further training or employment. Ages range from 15 - 65 years.

The training is based around furniture re-use and woodwork.

Donated household furniture is collected and passed onto people in receipt of means tested benefits.

Any damaged or wooden furniture is recycled in the Woodwork Shop to produce some of the following items:

PLEASE NOTE:

Special items can be made to order - any size, any colour. A 50% deposit is required. Prices are available upon request.

All income generated is used for the continuance of the work of the Project
