

Recommended wording if you wish to leave a gift in your will to MRC Community Action.

When writing your Will of course your loved ones will come first. Leaving a share of your estate to MRC Community Action is an easy way to remember a local charity who, with your help can continue to support your friends and family - you will also be helping to fund new services for the local community. If you do decide to leave a gift, it's essential to include our full name to make sure that your gift reaches us. Please find below some suggested wording for the different types of legacy gifts you might want to consider:
